

FOODPLAY SCHOOL DISTRICT TOURS

USE THE POWER OF LIVE THEATER TO TURN KIDS ON TO HEALTHY EATING AND EXERCISE HABITS!

It takes a healthy village to raise healthy children! FoodPlay Productions has developed a comprehensive, turn-key program designed to bring nutrition education to your entire school district, using the power of live theater to educate, entertain and inspire students, teachers and families throughout your whole community!

Our district wide tours help you:

- Make nutrition come alive with fun-filled award-winning theater shows for every school in your district.
- Get stakeholders on board to build a healthy school environment and create effective wellness policies.
- Extend nutrition education throughout the year with standards-based educational materials.

Live Theater Performances

- Using fantastic feats of juggling, theater, music, magic, and audience participation, FOODPLAY empowers students with the skills they need to make healthy eating and exercise choices.
- Originally sponsored by the USDA and CDC, FOODPLAY programs are researched based and highly evaluated – showing dramatic improvements in students' nutrition knowledge, attitudes and behaviors.
